NEW PRE-CONFERENCE
Transitioning from PCMH 2014 to PCMH 2017: Commit, Transform, Succeed
Thursday, November 2
The patient-centered medical home is a way of organizing primary care, emphasizing care coordination and communication to transform primary care into “what patients want it to be.”

PCMH Congress is the largest health care conference for the medical home neighborhood. Join the network of over 1,000 clinicians and administrators demonstrating a commitment to fully integrated, patient-centered care.

PCMH Congress Presents Tools and Information Needed to Transform Practices into a Patient-Centered Medical Home.

- The Patient-Centered Medical Home
  Practices providing continuous and coordinated whole person care

- Patient-Centered Specialty Practices
  Medical Home Concepts for Specialists that excel in care coordination

- PCMH Certified Content Experts
  Certified individuals with continuous and coordinated comprehensive knowledge of the NCQA PCMH program requirements, application process, and documentation

Experience PCMH Congress with medical neighbors and NCQA, architect of America’s most popular patient-centered medical home model. Come together for three days focusing on the journey toward transformation, recognition, and success.

PCMH WORKS

Studies show patient-centered medical homes (PCMH) help to cut costs. PCMH patients need fewer emergency department visits and hospital stays and less frequent specialty care.

Recognized PCMHs continue to excel. Continue to evolve as a medical home by implementing and sustaining PCMH activities to meet requirements, earn recognition, and improve patient care.

INTENDED LEARNERS
This conference is designed for professionals devoted to transforming care through the medical home model of care, including physicians, allied health professionals, practice administrators, quality managers, and consultants.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
After attending the PCMH Congress 2017 meeting, participants should be able to:
- Develop a road map to optimize comprehensive, quality improvement within the PCMH and the medical neighborhood
- Develop strategies that transform or sustain practices to the medical home model
- Describe the impact that PCMH-recognized practices have made on patient and population health outcomes

ACTIVITY OVERVIEW
The interactive educational conference will occur at the Hyatt Regency Orlando in Orlando, Florida on November 3-5, 2017. A question-and-answer session with the faculty will follow each presentation.

To be eligible for documentation of credit, participants must attend the full activity and submit a completed evaluation form. Participants who complete the evaluation online at www.PCMHCongress.com within 4 weeks of the live meeting will immediately receive documentation of credit.

HARDWARE/SOFTWARE REQUIREMENTS
The evaluation is accessible after the activity via a PC (Windows 2000/XP/Vista®) or Mac (Mac OS 10.x or later) computer with current versions of the following browsers: Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, or Safari. A PDF reader is required for print publications. Please direct technical questions to webmaster@naccme.com.

ACCREDITATION
In support of improving patient care, the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) is accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

This live educational activity has been approved for AAAMA Category 1 Credit™. Continuing nursing education contact hours will be provided to participants.

Continuing pharmacy credits will be provided to participants.

Activities will provide maintenance of certification credit for PCMH COEs.

ADA STATEMENT
NACCME and NCQA comply with the legal requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and the rules and regulations thereof. If any participant in this educational activity is in need of accommodations, please call 609-371-1137.

CANCELLATION POLICY
Cancellation requests postmarked by Monday, July 31, 2017 will be honored in the form of a full refund minus a $100 processing fee. No refunds will be issued after July 31, 2017. If you do not cancel or do not attend, you are still responsible for full payment. There are no exceptions to these policies. Payments made may not be applied toward tuition for future PCMH Congress conferences, or other meetings or products offered by NACCME or NCQA.

PRIVACY POLICY
NACCME protects the privacy of personal and other information regarding participants, educational partners, and joint sponsors.
